REMARKABLE SHOWING

MADE ALONG SOUTHERN AND M. & O. RAILWAYS

New Manufacturing Enterprises Industries Started and to be Started.

The showing made in the fiscal year, ending June 30th, last, of the new industries, additions to established industries and the expenditures for improvements of various kinds in the cities and towns along the Southern Railway and the Mobile & Ohio railroad, is a remarkable one, when it is considered that the period covered is the last half of the year 1909 and the first half of the year 1900. At a time when the demand for manufactured goods of all kinds in this country was at a low ebb, and capital was hard to find for new investments of any kind and in any portion of the country. Some of the figures for the industrial investments along the Southern Railway have heretofore been published. They show a total of 493 new industries, calling for an investment of $30,413,850, and additional to existing industries amounting to $7,383,936. In the same period 21,000,000,000 under construction new industries to be completed later in which $6,473,000,000 to be invested in the first half of the Southern's fiscal year 1900. The Southern's fiscal year 1900 has been a steady improvement in all business conditions, manufacturers, and operators of mines have felt warranted in renewing plant and equipment, and capitalists and bankers have been more ready to supply needed funds for industrial investments. The new industries started in the last half of 1900 greatly outnumber those begun in the first half of the year, so that for the first time in two years the normal industrial advance of the Southern states may be said to be under way. It is confidently expected, and all the indications show that the present year will easily exceed the past in the amount of factory building and in the investments made in all kinds of industries. That over $20,000,000,000 to be invested in the period covered along one line of the road in the Southeast shows to the most marked degree the industrial activity for various lines of industry.

The growth of industries along the line of the Mobile & Ohio railroad was also marked. In the stretch of 1,000 miles of territory covered by the road there were constructed in 1909-1900, ending June 30, 85 new industries, at a cost of $12,163,000, while additions to existing plants reached $2,264,700. The figures from the two lines show duplication at four or five places. Taking out these two lines shows an aggregate of 498 new plants costing $21,140,538 and a total investment in industries of $35,500,000, including the amount which went into the industries already constructed in 1900-1901. On June 30, to be completed a later day.

In general improvements during the year there were invested along the Southern Railway $60,812,200, making the total amount invested in all improvements for which statistics are gathered $10,146,200. The aggregate amount invested along the Mobile & Ohio railroad was $15,957,854. It is noteworthy that during the year the Southern $3,802,000 were new churches, 101,370 $18 for new business structures, $22,212,000 for new residences. At the same time the amount expended for public improvements was $5,558,337 on streets, $3,530,283 on sewers, $3,060,204 for water works and supply of water and the amount expended for the most conclusive manner the growth of the South in wealth and ability to make needed improvements as well as the continued expansion of its industries. There were built in the twelve months along the line of the Southern Railway, in cities, towns and villages, more than 15,000 new buildings.

The statistics are not available to show just what the gain has been during the year agriculturally, but the same advance in the agricultural has been made as in the various industries is certain. Indeed, there was probably even a much greater advance. The statistics of the United States department of agriculture show in the nine southeastern states, through which the Southern Railway and the Mobile & Ohio railroad run, returns from the staple crops of cotton, corn, wheat, oats, potatoes, hay and indigo in 1908 of $600,000,000. It is well known that the greatest advance in raising place in the methods of cultivation, soil preservation, crop diversification, and in everything which goes to the proper care of the farmer and the Southern farms more and more convenient and improvements of all kinds are being added, while the value of the land is being demonstrated as never before. There has been a steady growth of people from the north, and the Northern European countries, to the territory reached by the line. This movement is gaining all the time, as the value of Southern farm lands becomes better known.

In the past eight years there have been invested in industries along the Southern Railway and Mobile & Ohio Railroad the enormous amount of $610,000,000. This vast industrial expansion has come because the resources and their conditions which affect industrial development are found in the best advantages in the southeastern states.

Worth Knowing.

Hudsons are displacing Japanese in some California orchards. In Madagascar every one wears silk, which is cheaper than linen.

Great Britain has 500,000 horses and 1,000,000 automobiles. During the year 1908 the telephone was adopted on 2,847 miles of railroad. Bees sometimes fly two miles from the hive and find their way back without difficulty.

At a rose competition in Paris recently, sixty nine entirely new varieties of roses were exhibited. Pines are being made for the electrification of the more important state railways of Sweden.

Of the world's supply of India rubber 20 per cent is to be furnished by South America. Poison from infected or rotten cheese is not so very rare. The German cheese are deliciously ripened by yeast too much to tell.

The pack of Columbia river salmon shows a 20 per cent shrinkage from last year. The season has been about 25 per cent short of preceding seasons duration.

It is estimated that there will be produced in Alberta, this year, 20,000,000 bushels of wheat, and that the western half of Saskatchewan will do at least as well. The average yield 85,000,000 a year from its oyster beds, but could get $40,000,000 from this same source if the available tide land were properly utilized. "Inhabitations of Venus," if there are any, must find it extremely difficult to establish units of time. Venus is so close to the sun that the planet has no day, and the lack of a moon deprives it of a month.

Finally, it has no year, for its axis of rotation is perpendicular to the plane of its orbit, and the day is almost circular. -Horse and Farm.

Sixth District Convention L. O. O. F.

The semi annual convention for the sixth district, L. O. O. F., of Chester, York, Lancaster and Fairfield counties was held in the city Saturday night, at Lafayette Lodge L. O. O. F. There were two sessions, the first at 8:00 p.m. and the second at 10:00 p.m. The afternoon at four o'clock and the other at eight, in the evening. Special district grand master Phillips, of the Fairfield Lodge, presided. Raymond acting as secretary.

Interesting addresses were made in the afternoon by Messrs. B. L. Douglass, W. H. Newbold and others, and in the evening talks by the grand officers. Among the speakers were, W. C. Hall, Jr., of Charleston; Grand Master Dr. S. F. Kjellgren, of Columbia; Grand Secretary, W. H. Hamilton; Cobb, of Columbia; district deputy grand master, W. H. Hall, Jr.; and Dr. B. Butler, of Gaffney.

There was a delightful luncheon in the evening after the reading of reports and addresses. The conferring of the Robeca degree by Chester Robeca Lodge No. 41, upon Miss Carter, Wooten, and Messrs. O. A. Nunn, H. A. Raymond, W. H. Robertson, W. J. Hall, Jr., H. Hall, Jr., J. A. Walker, Jr., R. L. Hayes, W. W. Stokes, H. H. Jackson, D. E. Fletcher, T. B. Butler, Steadman of the Robeca degree. H. A. Raymond was the special feature of the occasion.

Lowest Death Rate in 1908. Washington, D. C.—The death rate in 1908 in the registration area was 16.3 per 1,000 population, purposes was 16.3 per 1,000 population, the lowest yet recorded. In rural districts covered by the tabulation the rate was 67.69. This apparent increase of 4,560 is explained by the fact that during 1908 two new states, Washington and Wisconsin, were added to the registration. The month of maximum mortality in 1908 was January, with 67,693 deaths, and that of minimum mortality was July, with 47,701 deaths. The death rates of the individual states vary from 18.4 for California to 10.1 for South Dakota.

Three Things to Remember About Woodlands.

In the first place the land owners should arrange to have all of their land protected something. Half a stand of timber is half a stand of profit. The profits from it are reduced more than twice.

In the second place the young timber must be protected from fire, and from cattle as well, where they are destructive. Young timber cannot grow without a good stand of trees. It must start in growth again, and there is the loss of several years before it is worth anything, on account of the fire, a permanent injury to the soil and the growth of the timber becomes slower in consequence.

In the third place the kind of timber must be used which is valuable. Blackjack and scrub oak are weeds in the forest. They cannot be sold. If they are and are expected to pay, timberland must be used which can be sold or which can be put to some profitable use on the farm.

These are the three most essential principles in managing a woodland. Protect from fire and at times from cattle; (2) keep the timber thick and (3) have a valuable kind of timber. W. W. Adams, Raleigh (N. C.) Forester.

Winter time, with ice, snow, mud and slush, is approaching. The tidy mother, with children two to fifteen years old, should see to it that the floors show the marks of mud. Children are worse than floors. Their comfort, outdoor exercise and health are the first things to be looked after. In the first place, clean and comfortable shoes should be bought. It is economy to get two pairs for them, so that when one pair is the other may be used which is difficult to get solid leather shoes that will stand the boys, but they are the cheapest in the long run. A can of grease should be used on the shoes on shoes frequently. Beef or mutton suet, with a little beeswax and castor oil melted and mixed, so that it will keep in the shoes. If a little rubber is heated and added to the mixture, it will make a waterproof grease. Children will not be in danger of disease from damp or wet shoes. The shoes should be changed for the night, wet shoes and stockings should be taken off and dry ones put on. To avoid muddy floors, have shoes made up every two days. They are easily made by boring two inch holes in a two inch plank and twisting the shoes and pulling half way through. "Trotters" are made of a piece of cloth so that they will carry mud into the house. They will soon take a pride in helping the mother to keep their floors in house and kitchen. -E.

Moile, Ala., Nov. 16.—Little Sutton of Ocean Springs, Miss., the young woman who was sentenced by Circuit Judge W. H. Hardy last spring to serve a term of six months in the penitentiary for burglary, has been released on bond, which she furnished by selling her property and putting up the money as collateral. She has been living with Merrill with relatives pending the appeal of her case to the supreme court, which trial affirmed her sentence a few days ago.

Left fatherless and motherless and having to care for an invalid brother, Miss Sutton has led a solitary life, which it is believed has impaired her mind and rendered her irresponsible for her actions. In custody of the sheriff she will have the post-mortem on the early morning train tomorrow. She will be the only white woman sent to Rankin farm in a long time.

Commercial Club to Have Reception

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Governors of the Commercial Club last night was decided to have a reception some time during Christmas week. The date will be about the week of December. All arrangements for the affair are in the hands of the entertainment committee of which Mr. G. J. Patterson is chairman.

In a cutting affair Friday afternoon between two negroes at the railway crossing, Will Lee was badly cut in the leg and arm. The negroes' wounds were dressed by Dr. A. W. Moore. Both were arrested and in the police court Saturday morning Lee was fined $100 and Lee $50. The negroes boarded the train at Edge-moore and on the way left out and had it out at the crossing where they disembarked.

Another Method of Preparing Land

"Old Farmer" Gives a Proved and valuable Suggestion

—Try It.

Mr. Editor, I will make another suggestion, for it is not too late yet to try it. Select a acre of good well drained land with red clay subsoil, scatter broadcast over it one sack of good fertilizer per acre and then turn the soil over with a 2 horse turn plow going down to the clay but not turning it up, then follow each turning furrow with a long narrow grab plow and scatter broadcast one sack of good guano to each, then harrow, then lay off in lands and plant from 3 to 4 feet apart, soaked in bluestone, to the acre and plow in with grab plows not very closely, which will leave it looking somewhat like it had been drilled in. Do not cover the grain too deep. Oats will bear deep covering, but wheat does better not to cover too deep. The ground ought to be pretty dry when planted in bluestone. Try it. It is not so much trouble as you might imagine. I am not writing for those who have drills or it would say plant with drill instead of plowing in with grab.

"Dear Sir, This notice is about a boy, who was born in Chester."

I thought it might be of interest to your readers to know what Little Lex Lee has done for 40 years.

He is the son of Mrs. N. J. Neal, who lives at No. 1718 Lumber Street, Columbia, S. C. They moved to Chester in 1869.

In order to make the American public think they are getting something out of the ordinary, we make it appear as if we had a measure for the safety of the original canvas.

Lex is a big hit in show business, and it won't be long until you will hear from this boy.

It is not that this may please your readers.

Yours very truly, Lex Lee.

Edw. J. Lee.

15 years of age. He is now removed to the title and reads "The State."

Edward Jolly met him in London last year. Jolly was then playing the part of the Mummy in "The Mummy," which had such a run at the London Gaiety.

Jolly was taken with the boy's singing and dancing. He secured from his mother permission to take the boy under his care for five years. Little Neal is a pocket edition of George M. Cohan. Furthermore, he can draw to the manner born. In speaking of himself yesterday, he said: "I was born in Manchester. I was my initial visit to America. I have seen the best in the London halls, but in all candor, I think the comedians of the states exceed the English variety actors. There is more 'ginger' to the American performer. It does one the greatest good to get to 'spit' the atmosphere of the American stage. There is a 'vibe' to it which is lacking in my country."

Jolly Wild & Co. scored such a hit with their playlet yesterday—a story of musical comedy—that they were enored eight times, while Jolly himself called back for sixteen seconds by the insistent demand of the crowded gallery, who would not be denied and as a result, he was kept on the stage forty minutes. This is an ovation never accorded an actor in this city before and he could have remained all night.

Others on this week's sterling bill are the Danes, Florence, Wilson and her famous "Wind Mill" Mrs. W. Wilson. The stage is a picture gallery of grand opera; George Snedley, a novelty musician; Carrie McGinnis, Colorado's Jenny Lind; and Mrs. W. Wilson, a grandiose picture, and Dr. Grunder's augmented orchestra.

The bill this week is good, but it is something of a rarity to have a son of nobility on the program which is the case with Little Lex Neal, the clever miniature edition of the Duke of Edinburgh in their uproarious farce of "P. Barnum, Jr.—Pueblo, Colo." Chief.

It will be recalled that along in the spring The Lantern offered a pair of scissors with each subscription paid up to the first of 1909. Many of the subscribers, who paid at the time the offer was made and was hence entitled to the scissors, were supplied but a few came in and paid the balance of the subscription. We have ordered a supply for these and will send them out as soon as they come to those who are entitled to them and who paid the postage for their mailing. Of course this offer expired on the first of June this year and to share in it you must have paid your subscription before that time one year in advance. We have the names of several and if there are any more entitled to share in them they would send in their names.

If you have paid your subscription since the first of June you do not share in this, but if before that time you paid one year in advance and have not yet gotten any scissors and haven't left your name with us please send us word at once. We will announce when the scissors arrive so that those entitled to them can call and get them.

We have another announcement soon which will be of interest to our subscribers. Watch The Lantern, editorials, news, advertising columns and all for this announcement.

Health and Beauty.

The girl who presumes will find that she will find matters immensely if she will carry a trial vial of rosewater and alcohol.

Cold water dashed on the face and chest in the morning gives the same effect of a cold plunge in the morning without the shock.

A simple remedy for burns is made by adding to a cup of olive oil a teaspoonful of carbolic acid. Apply bandage soaked in the mixture.

Relaxation is the secret of taking the mental, moral and physical kinks out of one's system in the warm weather. It will take all the week's tightly lines from your face and prevent new ones from forming.

All too frequently is a bottle of poison mistaken for something not deadly. One way to help avoid this danger is to put a brass headed tack in the cork of every bottle containing poison. Impress this fact on the family. One can know immediately whether the bottle holds poison simply by the sense of touch. This knowledge is especially valuable when you are looking for a bottle of snuff.

If any one of the family is unfortunate as to sprain his or her ankle, you will find it can make the doctor's part easier by soaking the affected member at once in hot water. This relieves the congestion, and by the time the doctor arrives with his bandages the sprain will be ready for treatment. It is better not to wait a moment to find out how serious the injury is, for hot water can do no harm, and the patient's suffering will be greatly lessened by prompt action.

For any inflammation of the eye, which comes on suddenly and cold water soothes the pain. After persistent trouble very hot water will relieve the pain and reduce the swelling. The eye cap is the most convenient way of treating the eye, for the eyeball is relieved directly. The use of eye cap is easy, which sits around the eye at the margin of the orbit. The eye may be opened into the lotion. A weak solution of borax, added 1 per cent, may be safely used. The add must be fresh and clear, however. There are the natural method of cleaning this organ.

ENROLLMENT OF DELEGATES.
List of Those Who Attended the Chester County Sunday School Convention Here.

The twenty Sunday school convention closed Wednesday, after a two days' session. The program as published in The Lantern was carried out with some few changes. Rev. S. J. Cardigan was the presiding officer of the convention with Mr. Arthur Lowry secretary. Much good resulted from the meeting. The list of delegates follows:

Chester Baptist Association—Rev. J. S. Snyder, Col. W. T. Atkinson, Col. W. H. Edwards, J. Patterson.

Chester M. E. Church—Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Heller.

Rehoboth M. E. church—J. H. Buchanan, L. D. Childs, Mrs. L. D. Childs and Mrs. M. J. Carroll.

Chester A. R. P. church—Miss Lillian White, Mrs. H. E. McConnell and Miss Joseph Bigman.

Clinton Presbyterian church—Rev. F. A. Brennan, B. T. Sandifer, A. W. Lowry.

Pleasant Grove Presbyterian church—Rev. C. G. Brown, Capt. Jim S. McKeown, Mrs. John H. Barber, W. Banks Boyd and Dr. W. J. W. Cornell.

Old Parity Presbyterian church—Rev. B. M. White.

Pleasant Grove M. E. church—D. S. Hollis, Walter Lynn.

Clinton Presbyterian church—Mrs. L. J. Crockett.

Concord Presbyterian church—G. W. Boyd.

East Side Presbyterian church—Misses Henrie Leckie, Annie Leckie and Minnie Bowdler.

Parity Presbyterian church—Rev. S. J. Cardigan, William McKinnell, Misses Nellie Leckie, Annie Leckie, Stringfellow and Medsage's G. Miller, Mary Hawley, J. T. Kee, S. B. Oehler and G. C. Latimer.

Officers were elected as follows: Rev. S. J. Cardigan, president; C. H. Henry, vice president; J. A. Hafner, secretary and treasurer.

The executive committee is constituted as follows: A. W. Lowry, J. S. McKee, J. G. Brown, J. Patterson, R. D. Dye, Davis G. Anderson, R. H. Ferguson and T. B. White.

After unanimously adopting a resolution of thanks to Rev. F. W. Greig and Mr. J. M. Way for their services the convention adjourned to meet next year at some point to be named by the executive committee.

Worked It Off.

Just what may happen to a man who has not strictly honest was illustrated on a street one day.

A man handed the conductor a dollar and asked for a strip of tickets. He received his five tickets, and then the conductor fumbled around for change and managed to make a "mistake."

He handed the man two half dollars instead of 10 cents. The man put away the money without saying a word and in a couple of minutes worked his way to the front of the car and got off.

"Say, conductor," said an interested observer, "did you notice you didn't give that man the right change?"

The conductor smiled complacently. "That's all right," he said. "If he had been a regular I returned that had half dollar I'd have given him a good quarter for it."

"I've been trying to get rid of that money for a week. I guess he deserved to get stung."—Philadelphia Record.

GREATER THAN LAST YEAR.

Yield in South Carolina This Year will Probably be Thirty Nine Million Bushels.

Columbia, November 25.—That the corn crop will exceed last season's crop by at least 10,000,000 bushels is the opinion expressed at the office of the commissioner of agriculture, commerce and industries today.

The preliminary reports received show that already 37,000,000 bushels are to be obtained from the crop. Commissioner Watson thinks the total yield will be over 39,000,000 bushels.

Last season's crop was 29,250,000 bushels, this being an increase of 10,000,000 bushels over the previous two years. It is also expected that the present season's crop will bring a high market price. In 1908 the average price per bushel in this state was 91 cents.

This was a higher price than in any state save Arizona, where the average was $1.06. The average price for the whole country was 66 cents per bushel. The prices have gradually and substantially increased for the past several years. In 1904, for the state, the price was 70 cents; in 1906 the market price was 74 cents; in 1907, 78 cents; in 1908, 91 cents.

Before the Melver Williamson plan was stressed in this state and the United States farm demonstration work was begun the yield of corn was only 17,000,000 bushels. Now the crop is being generally raised, and the export which has been shown this year are very gratifying.

"I 'loked' the stoim' out o' Dick Smith this mornin'."

"You bad boy! Aren't you sorry 'bout this mornin'?"

"Yessum—awful sorry. I just found out that he's got'n' ter have a birth day party tomorrow."—Cleveland Leader.

CHESTER SCORED GREAT VICTORY.
Defeated Clinton 37 to 0—Victors Outclassed.

The foot ball game yesterday morning between the teams of the Clinton high school and the Chester high school resulted in a victory for the Chester boys by a score of 37 to 0.

The Chester front outclassed the visitors on the offense and on the defense. The Chester goal was never in danger as Clinton played with careless play throughout. The forward pass, which the end runs, and line bucking, were all used by the Chester boys to their pleasure.

The game began promptly at 10:30 at the Athletic Park. Chester received the kick off defeating the Clinton goal. Spratt received the ball and made a beautiful run for thirty yards, then by series of line bucking and end runs, the ball was carried down the field, Leckie carrying the ball for a touch down. From this time on Chester had the visitors at their mercy, making four other touch downs during the other half of the game, three of which were made by Artie Atkinson, and one by Spratt.

One goal was kicked in the first half by Atkinson, the other four being made. Score at the end of the first half, Chester 37, Clinton 0. In the second half Clinton received the kick off and failing to make the required yardage, Chester took the ball and carried the ball over for another touch down. The 7th and final touch down was made by Chester just at the end of the second half. Atkinson carrying the ball over. Horn kicked goal making the final score stand, Chester 37, Clinton 0.

The features of the game were the line bucking, the end runs, the stiff arm by Artie Atkinson, long end runs by Horn, and the pretty interference by Spratt. Quarter back Spratt was the star of the game. The entire Chester team started and it was the team work rather than individual work that won the game. For Clinton right half back, Hoffman was decidedly the star.

Mr. John Spratt, of Clinton, was referee. Mr. John H. Hinchliff, umpire, Pitts Harding, head line man, and P. K. Spratt, of Lancaster time keeper. Time on halves 30 and 35 minutes. The line up Chester team was as follows:

L. E. H. Wilks, Hardie.
L. T. Cornwall, Walker.
L. G. Brainerd.
C. W. Wilks.
R. G. Cunningham.
R. T. P. Atkinson, B. Wilks.
R. E. Horn, B. Wilks.
R. H. Leckie, Horns.
L. H. Spratt.
L. B. A. Atkinson.
Q. Booth.

Death of Mrs. Belle Douglas.

Mrs. Isabel Sterling Douglas, widow of John Douglas, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Mills, near Blackstock, Tuesday evening at nine o'clock. She had been in failing health for a long time.

The funeral services were held at Concord church Wednesday afternoon by Rev. G. G. Hayes, of Blackstock, and the remains laid to rest in Concord graveyard.

Mrs. Douglas was about seventy years of age.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. M. Mills, a son, William, having died in infancy, also two brothers, Messrs. Robert and Thomas Sterling.

Even a gold hatpin will grow tarnished, and the best in this condition is anything but ornamental. When the workmanship is such that the usual brushing process is out of the question, the pin heads in a tangle of ammonia in which two table-spoonfuls of fine powder cleaner is placed. This settles to the bottom, and the pin can be turned back and forth on the substance and cleaned. This is an excellent method for cleaning hatpins containing small jewels. Any soap powder can be added to the ammonia. Belt pins and buckle can be cleaned in the same manner.

"When an old maid gets a letter," says the Philosopher of Folly, "she glances at the address, looks around to see if her friends see her, tries to blush, and then runs to her room to read it. That is to make people think it's from a man."

That was a dreadful tough, steak you sent me yesterday, Mr. Benfeigh, said a lady to her husband.

Was it madam? You should have sent it back.

Yes, I meant to, but my husband was too quick for me. Before I knew what he was going to do he cut it up into strips and uses it for blouses on the housewife door.

At Klutz' Store.
As advertised in The Lantern Santa Claus appeared this morning at Klutz' big store and opened toy land it was filled with beautiful and pretty toys and lots of little folks were on hand for the occasion. Santa appeared in his hat over Klutz' store and was a feature of the opening. Watch the Lantern for further announcements about him.

Surprise Party.

The "Mystic of Twenty-One" gave a surprise party last evening at the home of Miss Belle Flood in honor of her visitor, Miss Sallie Triplet.

Those present enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent. Among those present were: Misses Alice Whitlock, Harriet Galloway, Lillie Hardin, Edith McKee, Maud Slader, Pura Wachtel, Lois Sample, Vivian Hall, Lottie Klutz, Helen Hood, Elizabeth Calhoun, Lillie Mauney and Messrs. John McKee, Will Robinson, Edgar Alexander, Bord Carroll, W. F. Andrews, Robert Morrison, Ruben Thornton, Allen Mauney, W. L. Murphy, K. H. White, W. F. Caldwell.

Negro Horse Show.

The negro horse show was held yesterday and passed off successfully with a fair crowd in attendance.

The negro secured the services of three white gentlemen, Messrs. J. E. Cornell, Will McCordless and Bunch Caldwell for judges, and they rendered fair and satisfactory decisions. Quite a number of horses and mules were entered and some good animals were shown.

The husband (during the quarrel) 'You're always making bargains. Was there ever a time when you didn't? The Wife—Yes, sir, on my wedding day.

Washington, N. C., November 30.—Sliding down the chimney in an effort to burglarize the home of J. B. Davis at an early hour this morning, David Polford struck fast. The burglar's efforts to liberate himself, awoke Davis, who telephoned for the police. Though the chimney was rased to the roof and officers and neighbors were for an hour, efforts to release the man were in vain, and finally the services of a brick mason were required and the man and his accomplice were removed. Polford was taken out mired down and alive. He was locked up pending trial.

Adelaide Thurston

Adelaide Thurston is the envy of her sister Helen. It is so on the result of her drawing one of the dramatic prizes in "Country Mary," by Mary Belle Baker, author of "Mary Jane's Pa." in which Helen E. Dwyer is receiving the greatest success of her career. Miss Thurston has been so brilliantly successful in her starring tours, that the greatest dramatists are eager to write for her. Francis X. Hope, secured option on number of promising plays this summer, and from them and Miss Thurston selected "Country Mary." It is described as a charming idyllic piece, depicting the greatest success of her career. The title now gives Miss Thurston about half opportunity to display the distinction and magnetism that have caused her to be repeatedly compared with Maude Adams. Her tour began at Newport News in September. She will visit the south and middle west, returning to the east for a New York engagement in the early spring. A powerful company will support Miss Thurston, while the production will be in array with sumptuous. Opera House Dec. 3rd.

Breaux Bridge, La.—A mysterious misadventure which has caused the death of considerable cattle in this section recently, it is now believed, has been traced to the Mexican pool weevil. It was in fields most greatly infested with this pest that the cattle were stricken, and in the absence of other plausible theories the supposition that their eating of the weevils on vegetation was responsible for their death is entertained. The state department of agriculture has been asked to make an investigation.

EMPTIED LOAD IN LEFT HIP

White Man Shot by Negro, First

Accident of Thanksgiving

While hunting yesterday Holmes Robinson, white, was accidentally shot by Dudley Burns, colored. The shot entered the left hip and made a great gaping wound, leaving a pretty good sized hole in the bone. Dr. H. B. Malone was called and dressed the wound and it is thought that Mr. Robinson will get all right.

The accident happened just a few miles below old Parry church yesterday afternoon. The party was hunting birds and the negro was standing just in the rear of Robinson. Just as the birds flew up the negro discharged his gun, the entire load lodging in Robinson's hip. The negro was standing about ten feet in the rear of Robinson and hence the entire effect of the load was obtained. The negro was badly frightened and lost no time in coming to town for a doctor.

This was the first of Thanksgiving accidents reported from Chester County and fortunately it was no worse.

Slaughter Pen Situation

Here is the latest development in the slaughter pen situation, this paper having been served on the parties by Sheriff Colvin:

To E. M. Atkinson and Co., M. A. Elliott, J. A. Hall, J. A. Klutz, Joe T. Pary, and to Bebo Brown, and to each and every butcher in or near the city of Chester:

Whereas, there has been great complaint to the County Board of Commissioners, and to the Grand Jury of Chester County, in regard to the offensive odors and refuse about and near the pen, located near the Columbia public road, and just beyond the city limit; And, Whereas, certain persons who live near this slaughter pen complain that the same is not only very disagreeable, but is also causing sickness; and travelers on the Columbia road complain that the odor of this pen is offensive to them, and the property owners on the stream below this slaughter pen state that the refuse matter brought down the stream and the odor of the same is causing their property to depreciate in value.

Therefore, We, the County Board of Commissioners, respectfully ask that the slaughter pen be closed up and the use of the same be discontinued as once; and that another place be secured for slaughtering, at a reasonable distance from any dwelling or public road.

And you are hereby notified that if the use of the present slaughter pen is not discontinued by the tenth day of December, 1909, the Board will proceed according to law to compel the discontinuance of this slaughter pen.

But you will please obey the wishes of the people, without further process. Douglas and Wise, Attorneys for the County.

Chester, S. C., Nov. 24, 1909.

OPERA HOUSE

Magnate Adelaide Thurston will shortly make her last bow. In 31 years this talented actress has won for herself a prominent position as a star and it is safe to say there are few, if any players, who have more admirers and more devoted friends than she. Her company, for this season, is composed of "Country Mary," a comedy by Edith Ellis, whose plays are being given great success. Miss Thurston has in the little role of "Mary" a character to which she has varied talents and has perfectly. Opera house Dec. 3rd.

Far—Great heavenly! My words here are realized! Him—"What on earth's the matter?" Her—"I've got a telegram." Him—"Yes—Yes—What does it say?" Her—"I don't know. I haven't dared to open it yet!"—Cleveland Leader.

Defaulter Will Be Tried.

Columbia.—Solicitor Henry has knoed into a cooked hat the project started at Rock Hill to pay Charles May, the defaulting treasurer of the town, out of trouble, and the embarrasment case against him will come up for trial at Yorkville this week.

Although nothing has been published in the Rock Hill papers about this latest move in the May case friends of his family raised a fund of $4,500 with which they felt sure they would be able to compromise the case. So sure was May and his friends that the scheme would work that he made preparation to get employment; but when a committee of the subscribers to fund went down to Chester to see Solicitor Henry about the matter he promptly informed the committee that he could not consider a proposition to not proceed with the case for a moment and expressed surprise that such a proposition should be made.

It is feeling in Rock Hill is that Mr. May who has already acknowledged his shorthands, will plaud guilty and throw himself on the mercy of the court.

Recently one of our most fastidious young men bought a pair overalls and found in them the name of the sewing girl who made them.

He very promptly wrote her a letter with all the effluences necessary in such a case, and in due time received a reply, which, however, was void of the romance usual in such cases. Here it is: "I am a working girl, it is true, but I make a good living and I do not care to support a husband, as you would have to do if I married some silly noodle who gets mashed on a girl he never saw. Permit me to say that I do not know how my yard got in that pair of overalls, and that when I do marry, if ever, it will be some fellow that can afford something better than a 4 cent pair of breeches."

An insect in the ear may be destroyed by pouring a teaspoonful of warm olive oil or camphorated oil into the ear and keeping it there for sometime holding the head in a position to retain the oil, which will afterward come away with the dead insect.

An excellent paste for getting grease from carpets is made by mixing flour's earth with ammonia and water. Apply the mixture thickly, let it stand overnight, then remove with a stiff brush. The ammonia may be omitted if the colors on the carpets are delicate. After the grease is out the carpet may be freshened by sweeping with moist soil.

Little Mabel fell into the house mud and breathless.

"Oh, mother," she cried, "don't scold me for being late to tea, for I've had such a disappointment. A boy fell down, and they said that they were going to send for a horse doctor, so of course I had to stay. And after he'd waited and waited and came and, oh, mother, what do you think? wasn't a horse doctor at all. It was only a man!"
